

BUILD A GREENER FUTURE

Environmental Sustainability Skills for Healthcare Staff

This IEMA accredited course is globally recognised among professionals working in environment and sustainability.

This course is perfect for those working in any job role across all sectors, to ensure that environmental sustainability is embedded into all job roles of a company. It covers the main environmental risks and opportunities facing organisations; the importance of resource efficiency; the impacts of pollution, prevention, control and legislation; the impact of transport; and knowing how employees can support environmental sustainability.

BENEFITS

Recognised professional qualification

Supports your continuous professional development Journey

Easily accessible online training

Opportunity to network with peers working in environment and sustainability

Starting point of your IEMA professional membership journey

Who is this course for?

This course is ideally suited for those working in any job role across all sectors and has no formal entry requirements.

It is benchmarked against the Level 2 RQF descriptors.

Learning Objectives

The main environmental and economic risks and opportunities

Compliance obligations and business drivers for change

Potential impacts on environment and sustainability

How to improve environmental performance

Course Delivery

The course will be delivered in blended mode. The course duration is 7 guided learning hours. We deliver training programmes reflecting an innovative way of learning that is engaging, flexible and includes hands-on practical projects.

Assessment

The assessment consists of an online 20 question multiple-choice test. The test is completed through the IEMA assessment portal.

Certification

This course is an IEMA Certified course and certificates are provided by IEMA to learners who have successfully completed the course.

IEMA

The Institute of Environmental Management and Assessment

IEMA is the global professional body for anyone working in environment and sustainability. With 15,000 members throughout the world, IEMA is now the leading international membership organisation dedicated to the professional development of individuals involved in the environmental profession the public, private and non-governmental sectors. IEMA courses are ideal for those starting a career in environmental management, providing a solid foundation of expertise to build upon. It covers a wide range of environmental, sustainability and governance principles.

20FIFTY
PARTNERS

Empowering Change

For more information, contact Patricia at:

pnovakovic@20fiftypartners.com

or register at the HSE Academy>>

IEMA Certified/Approved Environmental Sustainability Skills for the Workforce. Ireland